

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For More Information, Contact:

November 20th, 2004

La'Shon Anthony
JAD Communications International
(312) 752-4469
media@jadcommunications.com (by e-mail)

Yvonne Brown elected to CMBDC Steering Committee

CHICAGO, IL. — November, 20th, 2004 —Yvonne Brown, President of Ball of Gold Corporation and founder of JAD Communications International was elected to the Chicago Minority Business Development Council (CMBDC) Steering committee at the November 17th General Membership Meeting.

CMBDC, one of the nation's premier organizations for minority business development in the nation, has championed the interests of minority entrepreneurs for over 20 years. The CMBDC increases business opportunities between major buying companies and minority-owned businesses. For more information on their services, visit www.cmbdc.org.

An entrepreneur and CMBDC member Yvonne is an Alumni of Leadership Illinois, serves on the Advisory Boards of the Women's Leadership Exchange, CIO Forum & is a member of National Association of Female Executives, the National Speakers Association, Black Data Processors Association, the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce, and other networking groups. Ms. Brown is the immediate past President of the Chicago chapter for Women in Technology Int'l, has authored eight books, and contributes her time to a number of charitable causes.

Ball of Gold, a certified MBE, is a full-service management consulting firm providing end-to-end business solutions, including Executive Education, Strategy Development, Business Analysis, Digital Readiness Assessment, Project Management Audits, and Planning, Evaluation & Implementation of Internet-based applications. For more information, visit <http://www.ballofgold.com>.

JAD Communications International specializes in women's issues and personal development through coaching & training on the belief system that never fails, valuing your wisdom, work/life balance and self-esteem building. JAD encourages women determined to stop limiting beliefs, reach self-fulfilling breakthroughs and achieve their highest potential. For more information visit <http://www.jadcommunications.com> or send an email to media@jadcommunications.com.

###